

I ask you not to change the Wisconsin no call list. We are so happy with the way it is working, and we are afraid that allowing one group to be exempted will open the door to all the others.